Student housing is made easy

Executive Summary

Company Overview

- We are an interactive app-based platform enabling college students to find sublets for their housing, potential roommates, new apartments, and an on-demand real-estate agent to answer all your queries and assist in your search in any possible way

Current Raising

- $125,000 as a convertible debt for a period of 12 months at a 10% interest rate per annum, guarantor by LaunchByte Ventures.
- Previously raised $125,000 from Vanguard Venture Group, a micro-PE firm

About the Founder

[REDACTED] and has an extensive background in Finance and Accounting and has previously worked on four startups, and is currently working at a micro-venture fund.

He is a rising junior at the Kelley School of Business studying Finance and Accounting with a minor in theatre

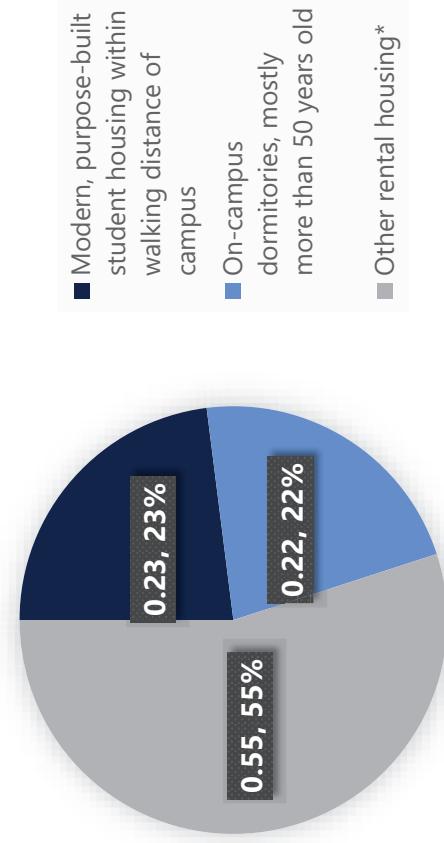

At school he is involved in the Investment Management Workshop, Kelley Student Government, Portfolio Management Club, and Peer tutor for BUS-K303

The Market

Vacancy rate of student housing units in the United States from 2016 to 2019

Distribution of university students living in the United States in 2018, by accommodation type

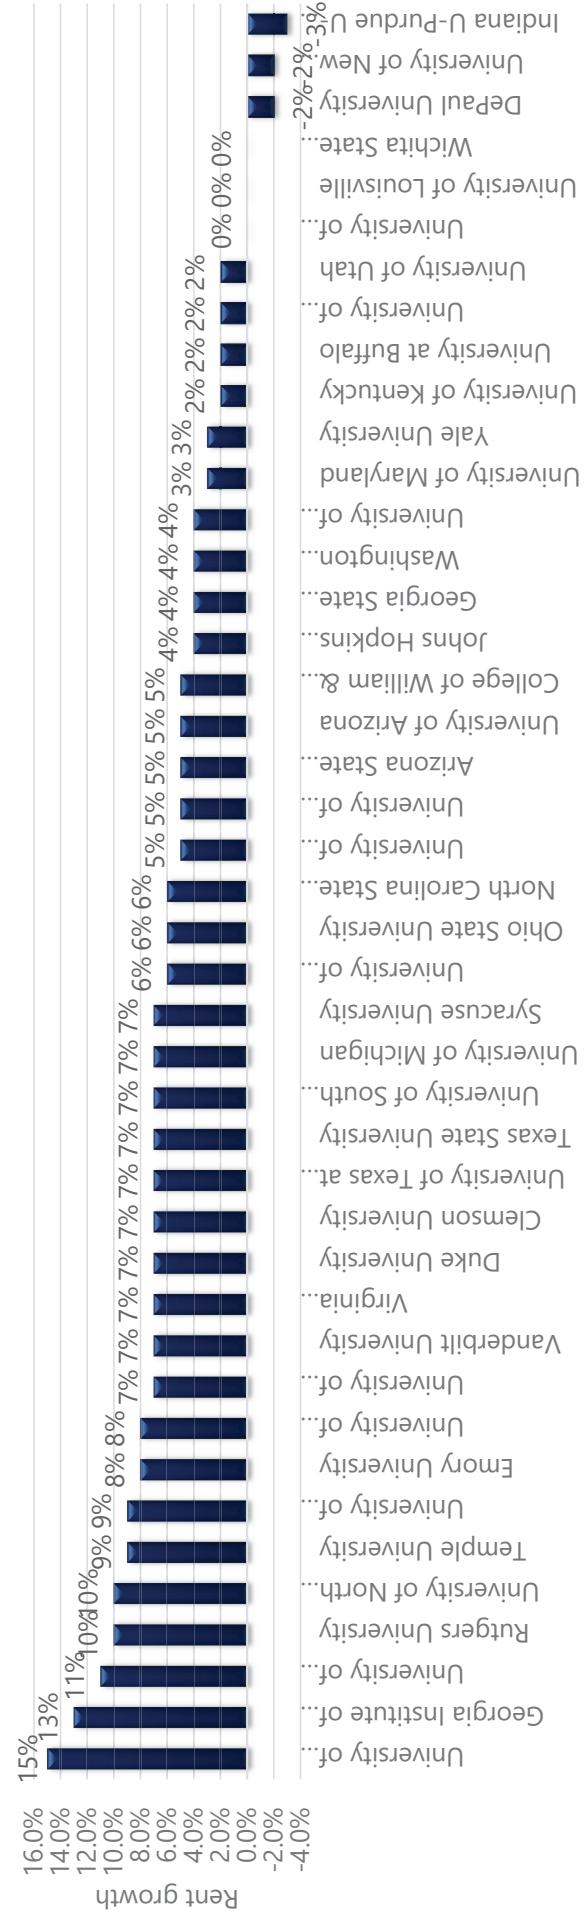

Student housing market has continued to grow and we can see a need for off-campus housing in order to fulfil the students needs. Moreover, the vacancy rate has declined in the last year as well due to the increase in the number of students

When student housing is made easy

Rent growth in student housing markets in primary metropolitan areas in the United States from 2015 to 2017

Rent growth in student housing markets in primary U.S. metros 2017

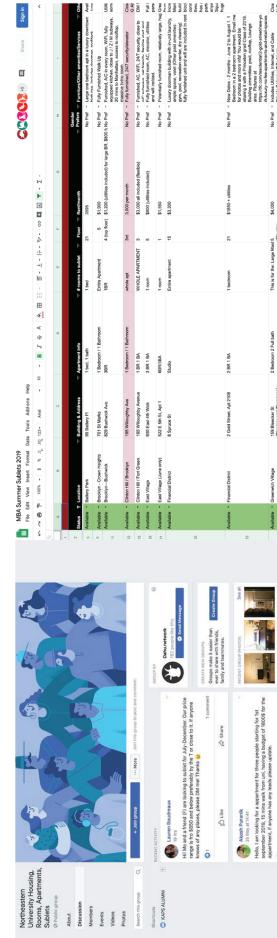

When student housing is made easy

Problem

- ✖ An increasing number of students are able to find housing when moving to new places in search of internships, full-time jobs, and summer schools

As a result students have to pay higher rents, live in hotels, or choose to Airbnb, which is not a cost effective solution.

- ✖ Currently students and universities are using Excel Spreadsheets and Facebook groups, which do not serve as a long-term solution to this growing problem in the student housing market.

Many students sign a 12-month lease, in which they are unable to sublet their house for the summer period, fall semester, or spring semester.

Already in student debt or increased financial pressure, the payment for rent during the vacant months creates an additional burden on them.

student housing is made easy

Proposed Solution

We propose to build an application which will help create an interactive platform on which students can put in their information regarding sublet

We will propose a login through the university ID and background check which will eliminate the fake profiles and will serve as a genuine and authentic way to sublet your apartment

We will have an agreement signed by both the interested parties, with the rent due on the first move-in day to eliminate any last minute surprises

We will create a separate platform for homeowners and incentivize them so that they do not hinder in the sublet process

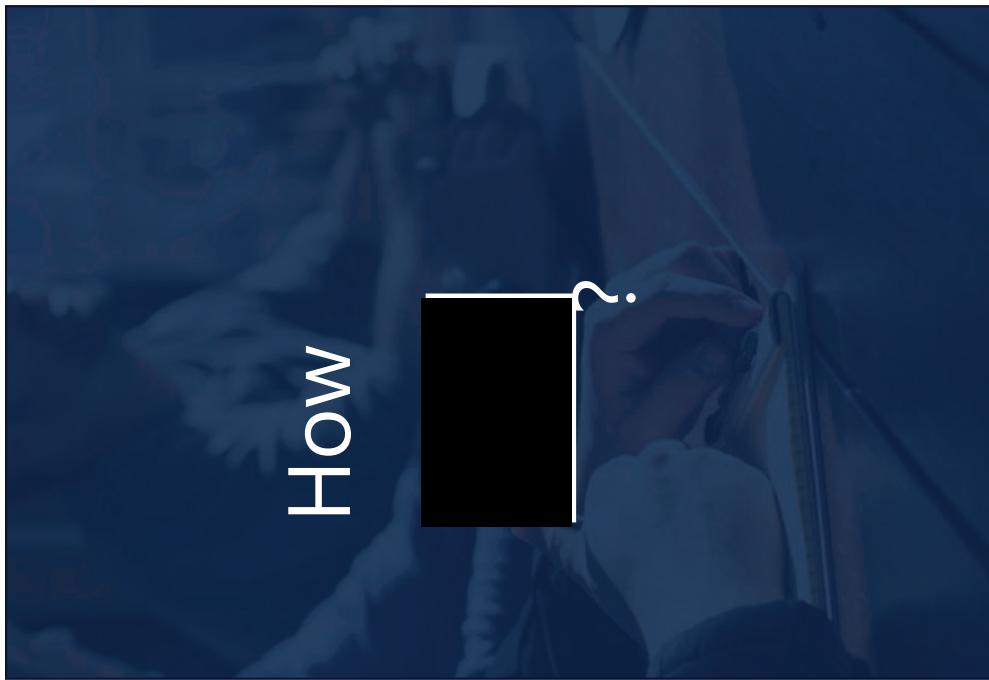

We will also require students to upload their I-20s, government issued IDs for verification process and create a centralized system for student housing

student housing is made easy

- Person X lists the information regarding the housing he wants to sublet by creating an account on [REDACTED] by entering his university email
- After the registration is complete, Person X will have to go through a background check and upload a valid government issued ID
- Person Y is moving to a new city and is in search for a housing in the same city as Person X
- Person Y undergoes the same process and by creating his/her own filters is able to match with Person X
- Person X and Person Y agree to all the terms and condition and sign a binding agreement protecting the interests of both the parties
- As soon as the agreement is signed, the homeowner will receive a confirmation email to approve the sublease
- No rent is paid until the move-in date and the rent will automatically deducted from the Person Y's account on the move-in date

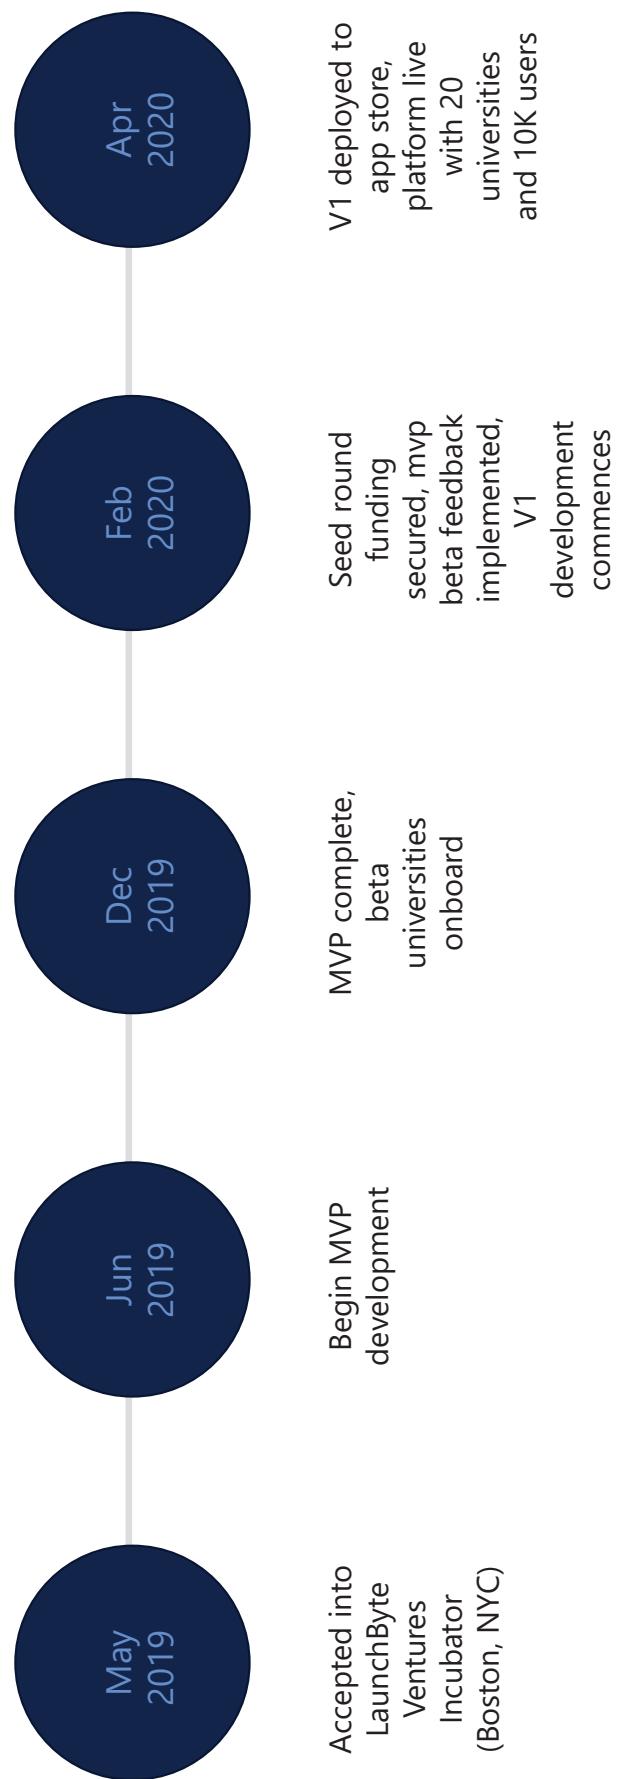

There are a few indirect competition from apps like sublet.com, flip.lease, renthop.com, roomies.com but do not pose a threat to us / our model since they do not market to the target audience and do not have the appropriate functions to make the process easy.

We do not have any direct competitors in this market, who are focused towards creating a single platform to solve student's problems when it comes to student housing.

We should be able to achieve a competitive edge through building an app only focused towards college students with no outsiders, keeping the homeowners in loop throughout the entire process, guaranteeing the genuineness of the apartment being subleased through our verification process, interactive map to showcase the best nearby place

Timeline

Revenue Model

Advertisements related to need of college students

10% service fee

Like nearby grocery stores, clubs, gyms etc.

Charging a one-time 5% fee from each of the parties based on the first months rent for every listing

Fundraising Terms

- 10% simple interest
- 12 month term
- Guarantor by LaunchByte Ventures

Seeking an additional $125K to close out the round.

Thanks for the update.

Eager to see the changes so we know how many bugs/edits are left to address

If we want this live by May 17, does the timeline look doable from your end? For an Apple approval we prob need to submit by May 12?

Again, goal of May 17 is event-based for NYC marathon relationships.

LaunchByte, LLC, LaunchByte.io, LLC and Mr. Kabra:

Please be advised this office represents [REDACTED] concerning its claims against LaunchByte, LLC ("LaunchByte"), LaunchByte.io, LLC ("LaunchByte.io") and Tanmaya Kabra ("Mr. Kabra") to recover damages [REDACTED] suffered in connection with LaunchByte, LaunchByte.io and Mr. Kabra's unfair and deceptive practices when LaunchByte, LaunchByte.io and Mr. Kabra fraudulently sold consulting services to [REDACTED]. Demand is hereby made pursuant to Mass. Gen. Laws c. 93A §9 ("Chapter 93A") as set forth in this letter. Chapter 93A allows for the recovery of both direct and consequential damages and attorney's fees. In addition, where the conduct at issue is both willful and knowing, as is the case here, multiple damages may be awarded.

Please be advised that when a reference is made to LaunchByte, LaunchByte.io, or Mr. Kabra, [REDACTED] intends for the reference to be attributed to the others. This letter in no way abrogates [REDACTED] from pursuing any claims against Mr. Kabra in his personal capacity. [REDACTED] maintains the position that Mr. Kabra has orchestrated the fraudulent scheme described below, is personally liable to [REDACTED] and any reference to a legal entity is a reference to the legal fiction created by Mr. Kabra behind which he attempts escape liability for the damage he caused [REDACTED]

FACTS

On January 29, 2018 Mr. Kabra induced [REDACTED] to enter a consulting agreement (“Consulting Agreement”) with LaunchByte. A copy of the Consulting Agreement is attached at Exhibit A. Pursuant to the Consulting Agreement LaunchByte was obligated to design, engineer and develop (“Develop”) the [REDACTED] application (the “App”), provide marketing, financial and business development consulting and operate as co-founder (collectively, “Co-Founder Support”). [REDACTED] paid LaunchByte and Mr. Kabra $124,630.00 (the “Monetary Fee”) pursuant to the Consulting Agreement. In addition to the Monetary Fee, [REDACTED] attributed Mr. Kabra’s LB Group Investment with an equity investment valued at $125,000.00 contingent upon full performance on the Consulting Agreement and [REDACTED] raising additional capital.

LaunchByte’s performance on the Consulting Agreement was secured by a promissory note (“Promissory Note”) from LaunchByte.io to [REDACTED] The Promissory Note immediately granted Hollarhype the right to demand the return of the Monetary Fee from LaunchByte.io should LaunchByte fail to perform under the Consulting Agreement.

LaunchByte fraudulently induced [REDACTED] into the Consulting Agreement to defraud [REDACTED] of the Monetary Fee, and unfairly attempt to gain an equity stake in [REDACTED] LaunchByte represented it had a team of seasoned executives who had a combined exit of more than $500M+ and helped 30+ portfolios build stellar products and raise their next round of funding. LaunchByte attempted to make itself appear able and experienced to perform under the Consulting Agreement. From [REDACTED] experience with Launchbyte, it has become clear that neither the claims of an executive team nor the claims of success of the portfolio companies is true.

Furthermore, as of September 22, 2019, LaunchByte failed to Develop and deliver the APP and failed to perform the Co-Founder Support Services. Mr. Kabra took the Monetary Fee and abandoned the Consulting Agreement entirely. As a result, [REDACTED] has suffered in launching its business, developing its customer base, generating revenues, fund raising, entering the market, loss of investor capital and confidence and remains without ownership of the APP. These violations by LaunchByte and Mr. Kabra are compounded by Mr. Kabra’s dissolution of LaunchByte.io. Mr. Kabra’s unfair and deceptive dissolution of LaunchByte.io damages [REDACTED] by eliminating the security it relied upon to enter the Consulting Agreement. As a result, [REDACTED] has been unfairly stripped of the very assurances Mr. Kabra used to induce the payment of the Monetary Fee and is left without recourse to Launchbyte.io.

Additionally, LaunchByte, Mr. Kabra and LaunchByte.io breached the covenant of good faith and fair dealing which is implied in every contract in Massachusetts. Fortune v. National Cash Register Co., 373 Mass. 96 (1977). The court in National Cash Register found that a termination of a contract not made in good faith constitutes a breach of contract. [REDACTED] maintains that the actions of Mr. Kabra go far beyond a mere breach. Mr. Kabra was aware of the circumstances and legal obligations surrounding the parties' engagement, negotiated the terms of the Consulting Agreement and Promissory Note with [REDACTED]. Despite these realities and the obligations to [REDACTED] under Promissory, Mr. Kabra dissolved LaunchByte.io. Thus, Mr. Kabra, Launchbyte and Launchbyte.io acted in concert and in bad faith subjecting them to the teeth of Chapter 93A.

Even if LaunchByte and Mr. Kabra dismiss [REDACTED] Chapter 93A demand, they will be liable to [REDACTED] under the theory of unjust enrichment. "The fundamental substantive basis for restitution is that the defendant has been unjustly enriched by receiving something, tangible or intangible, that properly belongs to the plaintiff. Restitution rectifies unjust enrichment by forcing restoration to the plaintiff." Santagate v. Tower, 64 Mass. App. Ct. 324 (2005). LaunchByte and Mr. Kabra failed to provide the APP and Co-Founder Support Services despite their possession of the Monetary Fee. LaunchByte and Mr. Kabra have become unjustly enriched by providing nothing to [REDACTED] yet retaining the Monetary Fee. LaunchByte and Mr. Kabra owe, at minimum, the return of the Monetary Fee to [REDACTED]

DEMAND

[REDACTED] has been required to expend resources and incur significant damages, costs, and delays in connection with LaunchByte, LaunchByte.io and Mr. Kabra's fraudulent scheme to sell the Consulting Agreement. The damages [REDACTED] has sustained include, but are not limited to, the payment of the $124,630.00 Monetary Fee, Hollarhype's delays to entering the market, cost associated to investigate and mitigate the damages, and loss of Hollaryhype's reputation with its investors.

[REDACTED] hereby demands payment of $175,000.00. Failure to receive payment in settlement of this claim in a prompt and timely manner will leave [REDACTED] no choice but to pursue all available legal remedies. Please be advised that if forced to pursue litigation on this matter pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 93A, [REDACTED] may recover up to treble damages for LaunchByte's unfair and deceptive trade practices along with attorney's fee and costs.

This demand will not be admissible against, nor deemed to be an admission of any sort by, [REDACTED] Nothing herein is intended to limit [REDACTED] claims against LaunchByte, Mr. Kabra and LaunchByte.io.

DEVELOPMENT CONSULTANCY AGREEMENT

This Development Agreement ("Agreement") is made and effective this 5th day of June, 2017, by and between

LaunchByte.io LLC, a Massachusetts limited liability company ("Developer")

And

██████████ a Delaware corporation ("Client")

In consideration of the mutual promises contained in the Agreement, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties agree as follows:

1. Duties and Responsibilities.

Developer shall develop and provide the services (each, a "Deliverable," and collectively, the "Deliverables") from the date of signing, according to the functional specifications and related information, attached hereto as Exhibit A-1 and incorporated herein by this reference (collectively, "Specifications") and as more fully set forth in this Agreement. The Deliverables shall be delivered to Client as set forth in the Specifications.

2. Ownership of Deliverables.

A. Developer agrees that the development of the Deliverables is "work for hire" within the meaning of the Copyright Act of 1976, as amended from time to time, and that the Deliverables shall be the sole property of Client. To the extent that a Deliverable is not a "work for hire," Developer hereby assigns to Client, without further compensation, all of its right, title and interest in and to such Deliverable and any and all related patents, patent applications, copyrights, copyright applications, trademarks and trade names in the United States and elsewhere. Developer will keep and maintain adequate and current written records with respect to the Deliverables (in the form of notes, sketches, drawings and as may otherwise be specified by Client), which records shall be available to and remain the sole property of Client at all times. Upon reasonable request, Developer will sign all applications, assignments, instruments and papers and perform all acts reasonably necessary or desired by Client to assign the Deliverables fully and completely to Client and to enable Client, its successors, assigns and nominees, to secure and enjoy the full and exclusive benefits and advantages of the Deliverables.

- B. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, (i) any routines, methodologies, processes, libraries, tools or technologies created, adapted or used by Developer in its business generally, including all associated intellectual property rights, (ii) any and all other intellectual property rights that Developer created, licensed, or otherwise acquired by Developer before entering into this Agreement or which were acquired or developed outside the scope of this Agreement, or (iii) any confidential or proprietary information of Developer (items (i – iii) are collectively referred to as the "Development Tools"), shall be and remain the sole and exclusive property of Developer, and Client shall have no interest in or claim to the Development Tools, except solely to the extent necessary to exercise its rights in the Deliverables. In addition, notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, Developer shall be free to use any ideas, concepts, or know-how developed or acquired by Developer during the performance of this Agreement to the extent obtained and retained by Developer's personnel as impression and general learning. Subject to and limited by Client's intellectual property rights described in Section 2. A. above, nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to preclude Developer from using the Development Tools for use with third parties for the benefit of Developer.
- C. In addition to any other fees set forth in this Agreement, Client shall be required to purchase any applicable third party licenses for any third party products that are necessary for Developer to design and develop the Deliverables. Such third party products may include, but are not limited to: Web & Mobile Development suites, stock imagery, advertising spend, influencer payouts, or any other copyrighted work which Developer deems necessary to purchase on behalf of Client to design and develop the Deliverables. In the event of any such third party product, Developer shall obtain Client's prior written consent before incorporating such third party product into the Deliverables.

3. Compensation

- A. Client shall pay Developer as set forth in Exhibit A-1.
- B. Subject to Client's prior approval, Client will reimburse Developer for all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses, including, but not limited to, air fare, lodging, meals and rental of automobiles incurred by Developer during the development of the Deliverables on behalf of Client, if any of these activities are deemed necessary.
- C. Since Client is receiving an investment from LaunchByte or an affiliated party in their current round of financing, payment shall be due in one payment upon the execution of this agreement.

4. Independent Contractor.

Developer is acting as an independent contractor with respect to the services provided to Client. Neither Developer nor the employees of the Developer performing services for Client will be considered employees or agents of Client. Client will not be responsible for Developer's acts or the acts of Developer's employees while performing services under this Agreement. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed to imply a joint venture, business, partnership or principal-agent relationship between the parties, and neither party by virtue of this Agreement shall have any right, power or authority to act or create any obligation, express or implied, on behalf of the other party.

5. Development Staff-Monitoring.

- A. Developer will utilize employees and/or contractors capable of designing and implementing the Deliverables to be developed per this Agreement. All work shall be performed in a professional and workmanlike manner. Developer shall arrange for such employees and/or contractors, if any, to execute and deliver any document or instrument reasonably requested by Client to reflect Client's ownership of the Deliverables or in connection with any application for patent or copyright.

- B. Client shall have the right to reasonably observe and monitor all aspects of the performance by Developer of its obligations hereunder and Developer shall use reasonable efforts to facilitate such observation and monitoring. Information, functions and operations of Developer not directly related to its obligations hereunder shall not be subject to observation and monitoring.

6. Change in Specifications.

Client may, request that changes be made to the Specifications, or other aspects of the Agreement and tasks associated with this Agreement. If Client requests such a change, Developer will use reasonable efforts to implement the requested change at no additional expense to Client and without delaying delivery of the Deliverables. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that the proposed change will, in the opinion of Developer, require a delay in delivery of the Deliverables or would result in additional expense to Client, then Client and Developer shall confer and Client shall, in its discretion, elect either to withdraw its proposed change or require Developer to deliver the Deliverables with the proposed change and subject to the delay and/or additional expense. Any such changes shall be agreed upon in writing to the extent additional time or expense is required.

7. Confidentiality.

- A. Developer acknowledges that all material and information supplied by Client which has or will come into Developer's possession or knowledge of Developer in connection with its performance hereunder, is to be considered Client's confidential and proprietary information (the "Confidential Information"). By way of illustration, but not as a limitation, Confidential Information includes trade secrets, processes, data, know-how, program codes, documentation, flowcharts, algorithms, Web & Mobile Development plans, forecasts, unpublished financial statements, budgets, licenses, prices, costs, and employee and customer lists. Developer's undertakings and obligations under this Section will not apply, however, to any Confidential Information which: (i) is or becomes generally available to the public through no action on Developer's part, (ii) is generally disclosed to third parties by Client without restriction on such third parties, (iii) was in Developer's possession prior to disclosure by Client, (iv) was or is independently developed by Developer with use of the Confidential Information, or (v) is approved for release by written authorization of Client. Upon termination of this Agreement or at any other time upon request, Developer will promptly destroy or deliver to Client all notes, memoranda, notebooks, drawings, records, reports, files, documented source codes and other documents (and all copies or reproductions of such materials) in its possession or under its control, whether prepared by Developer or others, which contain Confidential Information. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Developer may retain electronic copies of Confidential Information to the extent that (i) such information is stored on backup systems in connection with its customary practices for backup storage of electronic information generally and it is not practical to access and erase such information and (ii) such information remains subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and is not thereafter accessed or used in violation of this Agreement. Developer acknowledges that Confidential Information is the sole property of Client. Developer agrees to use best efforts to hold Confidential Information in the strictest confidence, not to make use of it other than for the performance of its obligations hereunder, to release it only to the Developer's employees or contractors with a need to know such information and not to release or disclose it to any other party. Developer will notify Client in writing of any circumstances within its knowledge relating to any unauthorized possession, use, or knowledge of such Confidential Information.

- B. Developer agrees to keep the performance of its obligations hereunder strictly confidential and not to disclose any information to any third party or entity without the prior written permission of Client. In no event shall Developer or any of its employees use Client as a reference in Web & Mobile Development Developer's services to any third party or entity without Client's prior written permission.

8. Training; Maintenance.

- A. Developer shall provide Client and its employees with any training consultations with respect to the use of the Deliverables as explicitly set forth Exhibit A (as applicable), at such time as may reasonably be requested by Client from time to time for after acceptance at no additional costs to Client. All training that Developer is required to provide hereunder shall be performed at such locations and at such times as are mutually agreed to by the parties hereto.

- B. Upon Client's request, Developer will provide any maintenance services (including without limitation, bug fixes) requested by Client (that are otherwise outside the scope of the Specifications listed in Exhibit A and the Payment Schedule in Exhibit B). Such services will be performed on a time and material basis at Developer's then current hourly rates for such services, which is currently $125.00 per hour (subject to change to mutually agreed upon figure by Developer and Client).

9. Representations and Warranties.

- A. Developer represents and warrants that, for a period of 90 days following acceptance in accordance with Section 11, a Deliverable will operate substantially according to the Specifications. In the event of any breach of the representation and warranty in this Section 9.A., in addition to any other remedy to which Client may be entitled, Developer shall take reasonable actions necessary at its expense to cause the Deliverable to operate according to the warranty.

B. Developer represents and warrants that the Deliverables will not infringe upon any copyright, patent, trade secret or other intellectual property interest of any third party. Client represents and warrants that no material provided to Developer in connection herewith will cause Developer or the Deliverables to infringe upon any copyright, patent, trade secret or other intellectual property interest of any third party.

10. Warranties, Limitations.

A. EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT, (I) EACH DELIVERABLE IS PROVIDED AS IS AND AS AVAILABLE AND (II) TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, DEVELOPER DISCLAIMS ANY AND ALL WARRANTIES WITH RESPECT TO EACH DELIVERABLE, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF TITLE, NON-INFRINGEMENT, MERCHANTABILITY, AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE.

B. IN NO EVENT SHALL DEVELOPER BE LIABLE TO THE CLIENT, OR ANY THIRD PARTY, FOR ANY INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, SPECIAL, PUNITIVE OR EXEMPLARY DAMAGES ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT (INCLUDING LOSS OF PROFITS, USE, DATA, OR OTHER ECONOMIC ADVANTAGE), HOWEVER CAUSED AND ON ANY THEORY OF LIABILITY INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE, AND EVEN IF DEVELOPER HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.

C. DEVELOPER'S AGGREGATE LIABILITY TO CLIENT (OR ANY THIRD PARTY) FOR ALL CLAIMS ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT WILL NOT EXCEED THE FEES ACTUALLY PAID TO DEVELOPER PURSUANT TO THIS AGREEMENT.

11. Delivery and Acceptance of Deliverables.

A. Developer will deliver the Deliverables to Client in accordance with the Specifications.

B. Client will examine and test the Deliverables promptly upon delivery to determine whether the Deliverables conform to the Specifications and with the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Within the time specified in the Specifications, Client will provide Developer with a written statement that Client accepts the Deliverables or a written statement of errors setting forth in detail each specific instance in which the Deliverables do not conform to the Specifications. Any Deliverable not accepted or rejected in the manner set forth in the immediately preceding sentence within the applicable time period will be deemed accepted. Within the time specified in the Specifications, Developer will either (i) correct each instance of nonconformance set forth in the statement of errors, (ii) notify Client that Developer has determined that the Deliverable conforms to the Specifications, setting forth in detail the basis for such determination or (iii) notify Client that Developer does not have sufficient information or materials to determine whether the Deliverable conforms to the Specifications or to make any necessary changes or corrections, setting forth in detail the additional information or materials needed by Developer.

12. Term and Termination.

A. This Agreement shall commence on the date set forth above and continue until all of the obligations of the parties have been performed or until earlier terminated as provided herein.

B. Developer's appointment as Developer pursuant to this Agreement and this Agreement shall terminate upon the occurrence of any of the following events:

(i) in the event either party defaults in any material obligation owed to the other party pursuant to this Agreement, then this Agreement may be terminated if the default is not cured following at least sixty (60) days written notice to the defaulting party, or

(ii) either party is bankrupt or insolvent, or bankruptcy or insolvency proceedings are instituted against a party and the proceeding is not dismissed within thirty (30) days after commencement. In the event of early termination by Developer or Client in accordance with this Agreement, Developer agrees to deliver the Deliverables then completed. Developer, in that instance, shall be paid a pro rata share for the Deliverables then completed.

C. Section 2, Ownership of Deliverables, Section 7, Confidentiality, and Section 10, Warranties, Limitations, shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement.

13. Notices.
